Dear Parent,

As you are well aware, exam week at St. Mary's is upon us. We know that our students and staff have worked hard this year and we are so proud of them. Final exams carry a significant weight of the students' final mark and as such are written according to the following schedule - (See Exam Schedule – Back of Sheet):

All option classes will have their final exams written in class before the last day of instruction for the semester. Exam week is from Monday, June 17th to Wednesday, June 26th.

All students are expected to be here and prepared to write exams beginning at 8:30 a.m. and students must remain in their exam until 10:00 a.m. If after 10 am, the student is able to be picked up or walk home with parent permission, please remind them to sign out at the office and then leave the school grounds. Students wishing to remain at the school may stay in the exam room for the rest of the morning and then study hall for the afternoon. It would be the expectation that any remaining students be prepared to use this time for quiet study. If you wish to give permission for your child to leave following their exam, please sign and return the permission slip below.

Some students prefer to study at home. Students in junior high (7-9) require written consent to be given to acknowledge that parents are aware that their child is leaving and not in school. Some junior high and high school students do stay in school because of rural bussing, and for extra help. If they wish to remain on site, they must remain in the study hall classroom. Students in grade 10-12 do not require permission to leave after their exam during exam week.

Textbooks and course materials – Please bring all subject textbooks and/or course materials to your exam – your exam supervisor will collect them at that time...students that have textbooks that are lost or damaged will be charged to replace and/or repair them on Powerschool.

PowerSchool will be unavailable starting June 17th, 2024 and throughout exam week as marks are updated and finalized for the year. Report cards via PowerSchool will be available online as of June 27th, 2024 at 1:00pm.

Yours in Christ,

St. Mary's Admin
